

Occupational Health and Safety Policy

The Occupational Health and Safety of all persons employed at Vulcanite Pty Limited and those visiting the organisation is considered to be of the utmost importance.

Resources in line with the importance attached to occupational health will be made available to comply with all relevant Acts and Regulations and to ensure that the workplace is safe and without risk to health.

Occupational health and safety is both an individual and shared responsibility of all employees. The following responsibilities are essential to the success of this policy:

Management has a responsibility to:

- Integrate occupational health and safety into all aspects of the workplace;
- Promote communication about occupational health and safety as a normal component of all aspects of work;
- Plan, develop, implement and monitor an occupational health and safety program;
- Take effective action to provide and maintain a healthy and safe workplace.

Employees have a responsibility to:

- Work in a healthy and safe manner;
- Encourage others to work in a healthy and safe manner;
- Cooperate, support and promote Occupational Health and Safety initiatives in the workplace;
- Report or rectify any unsafe conditions that come to their attention
